

WE ARE HIRING

Marine Biologist (Chinese Speaking)

Where authentic hospitality becomes a living expression of our island.

Qualifications

- Previous experience in a similar role within a luxury or five-star resort
- Fluent in Mandarin Chinese and English, with excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Degree in Marine Biology, Marine Science, Environmental Science, or a related field.
- PADI Rescue Diver certification or equivalent.
- Strong swimming and snorkeling skills with confidence in the water.
- Good knowledge of coral reefs, marine ecosystems, marine species, and conservation practices.
- Excellent communication and presentation skills with the ability to engage guests of all ages.
- Comfortable working within a luxury hospitality environment and delivering exceptional guest experiences.
- Team-oriented, adaptable, and capable of working in a multicultural environment.
- Willingness to live and work on a remote island in the Maldives.
- Minimum 12-month commitment.

About Park Hyatt Maldives Hadahaa

Set on a secluded private island in the far south of the Maldives, Park Hyatt Maldives Hadahaa is a place where people, purpose, and place come together. Our resort culture is built on trust, inclusion, and meaningful connections, empowering colleagues to grow while delivering authentic luxury experiences. With sustainability, wellbeing, and human connection at the heart of our operations, we foster an environment where associates are inspired to create memorable moments for our guests while building lasting careers.

To apply Please submit your curriculum vitae via email to recruitment.phmh@hyatt.com or connect with our People & Culture team at Park Hyatt Maldives Hadahaa.

Park Hyatt Maldives Hadahaa — Our Living Island

PARK HYATT MALDIVES™

HADAHAA